

Mar
2020

TURIN TO HOST VNL MEN'S FINAL 2020

The finals of the Men's Volleyball Nations League has been decided by FIVB to be hosted in Turin, Italy which spans from 1 to 5 July 2020.

The selected 18,500-seat Pala Alpitour arena had been the host of the 2016 FIBA World Olympic Qualifying Tournament (Basketball) and 2018 FIVB Volleyball Men's World Championship, and will also be hosting the Tennis ATP Finals from 2021 to 2025 for the first time.

CHECK OUT OUR FAVOURITE PLAYS OF THE ISSUE!

Chosen as the Top 5 Comebacks in Volleyball history, including matches in the Olympics!

DID YOU KNOW?

Traditionally, volleyball scoring rules state that:
“ONLY THE SERVING TEAM CAN SCORE A POINT”
(i.e. If the opposing team wins the rally, NO POINT IS AWARDED but they serve next!

ZHU TING, IN THE LIMELIGHT AGAIN!

Tianjin Bohai Bank was led to their 12th Chinese Volleyball Super League title by their China captain and star spiker Zhu Ting. Despite yet another MVP award, this was the first time Zhu has received the honour since returning to China from Turkey. Nonetheless, her bigger target remains as Tokyo 2020!

